Curtis Lee Honeysuckle

Apr 7, 1960 - May 20, 2020

Curtis Lee Honeysuckle was born on April 7, 1960 in Oklahoma City, OK to Junior Lee and Francis Virginia (McDonald) Honeysuckle. Curtis passed from this life on May 20, 2020 in Oklahoma City, OK at the age of 60.

Curtis loved his family, especially his grandchildren and would spend as much time as possible with his nearest grandson, Caleb. He enjoyed gardening, hunting arrowheads and keeping his hands busy building or fixing things. He had a talent for sharpening knives along with wood work and would often hand carve canes and walking sticks. In his earlier years he was a skilled carpenter, and used those skills to build the first house he and his family lived in. He loved with his whole heart and did whatever he could to make sure his family didn't go without and was a friend to many that could always count on him. He could make you laugh and enjoyed cutting up and talking with friends and family. He spent his time relaxing watching his beloved western films.

Curtis was preceded in death by his parents, Junior Lee and Francis Virginia (McDonald) Honeysuckle.

Curtis is survived by his longtime partner, Sheila Trent; son, Dustin Honeysuckle and wife Mychal and their children, Addison, Ethan, Treyson and Cash; daughter, Haley Gibson and husband John and their son, Caleb; the mother of his children, Vickie Gregory; sisters, Margie Brewer and Angela Gardner; brothers, James Honeysuckle and Everett Honeysuckle and numerous nieces, nephews and friends.
