“ I can only imagine the pain, sadness, and confusion of the children and grandchildren at Gloria's sudden death. I'm sure that writing their mother/grandmothers obituary was extremely difficult.

I would be remiss if I did not acknowledge other immediate family members: Gloria was preceded in death by her baby sister - Linda Gregory, her niece - Kelly Brandon, and nephew, Jeremy Hirst. She is survived by her sons - Timothy and Jessie Smith, a brother - Lyle Shugars, and two sisters - Rose (Ken) Hirst, and me - Sue (Joey) Hess.

Family - you are in my thoughts and prayers...

“ You may have a official title of Grandma but that was never the case of us you were my MOM,my best friend,my soulmate. The only person I knew to call first and cry to or to ask what to set the oven on when I was cooking dinner. I never had to wonder if I had anyone to be here for me because you always made it so comfortable to come to. I have no idea how I am going to keep this family together but I will for your name sake. Mom I love you with every piece of my heart and I'm so sorry I couldn't do more but I promise I am going to live for you and make you proud. #FlyHighGranny

“ Momma I'll try and fill your shoes and keep this family together. You was the most amazing momma. I only wish that I can be half the mom you were. Don't worry I'll watch football and think of you, I'll make sure to always have a box of your muffins.

“ Gloria was the best mom a person could ask for. She was strict when she needed to be and a loving shoulder to cry on when times were tough. I thank God for giving her to me. Till we meet again. Love you Mom.
