“ So Sad to realize Lewis is no longer with us, but he is in a better place sharing his time with our Lord and savior. I will miss him and my prayers are with the family in their time of mourning. Bless you forever Lewis, farewell my friend.

“ My husband and I met Lewis over 20 years ago at Victory Life. Lewis was such a servant who touched my husband's heart so, that he asked Lewis to be one of his groomsmen/ushers at our wedding! After my husband's passing, Lewis remained faithful to him as a dear friend by watching out for me, always encouraging me with God's Word! He even went so far as to tell me when it was "time for me to start living again!"

The don't remember one conversation I've ever encountered with Lewis that was not engulfed in scripture or amazing testimony. If God ever put human feet on the Bible, they were Lewis McConnell's. One anointed warrior!

Thank you fo being our dear friend, Lewis!

Now, wear your crown down the streets of gold with your dear brother!

We are better people because of your witness!

“ several years ago, Lewis was riding with our beloved Warriors of the Word to visit a sister church in Texas. On the way back, he experienced an oil pressure problem and did not want to ride his bike the rest of the way home. I hitched up my trailer and went down to Decatur, Texas and picked him and his bike up and headed for Kingston. On the way home, literally every subject we talked about had a scripture that Lewis knew by heart. It was a great couple of hours that I will never forget! I will miss you, brother, but we are all looking forward to seeing you again. We will walk, or ride, the streets of gold for all eternity.

“ Lewis was not only a good friend, but someone I could always drive to see, and always had time for me, to be straight with me, tell me the truth, whether I liked it or not, bring me to reality, and then let me, but most importantly, that God was the answer and the only answer. I love you Lewis, thanks for everything, I will miss you, but this isn't goodbye, it's till we go fishing again.

“ Lewis was the most sweetest warm hearted friend I had the honor of meeting, an serving his breakfast for many years. I met Lewis when I first moved here while working as a waitress an I loved him from the first meeting. He made me laugh, always keeping Mike on his toes lol You will be missed. RIP my friend

“ I don't know how old I was, 10? And he came home from hunting. A guy I had a crush on was sitting next to me in the front yard. He told me to get in the house and said something to my little boyfriend. At the time I was so upset but later I appreciated him looking out for me and it made me feel like I was one of his own.
