“ Mamoo was what we called her. She loved children and sewing things for them. My daughter was the recipient of many beautiful dresses for herself, her barbies and her other dolls. Mamoo made the most fabulous Halloween princess costume with all the extras one year- I will never forget the smiles that brought! As a single mom, I feel especially blessed to have had Mamoo around to give my girl an extra hug or offer kind words. She will be missed and always remembered.

“ Dear Folks,

I am so sad to hear that your Momma passed away. I know how difficult it must be to lose her. She was special to a lot of people. As I write this note, tears are welling up in my eyes. I so much enjoyed my talks with her (and Harold) over the years. I called her several months ago just to get my "Louise fix". We reminisced over old times and talked for a long time. We can be comforted that at last she is face to face with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. There is no more illness and pain, and she is once again with Harold and her folks in Heaven. I'll be praying that the Lord will bring you peace in this difficult time.

Love,

“ Louise was my first cousin and my Dad's (Sam Hall) favorite niece. She was only a teenager when he left to join the Navy during World War II and she wrote to him every week. I used to come stay with Sharon for a week in the summer and then Sharon would spend a week with us in Tulsa. I have so many happy memories of Louise. She showed me that yellow squash did not have to be cooked into mush! Whatever chores her girls had when I visited, I was expected to do, too, but she always made sure we had time for fun. And then there was the time that she saved my life! And, yes, that is overly dramatic but it felt that way at the time. Our family had driven down from Tulsa to see my Dad's mother on a Sunday afternoon. My sister and I wanted to go see Louise's family, Dad gave me the keys to his Brand New Sky Blue Metallic Pontiac Bonneville! It was a short drive on roads that I knew very well so it seemed safe enough. But. There had been a lot of rain and at a low point in the road there was a lot of mud. A lot. I drove that big new Yank Tank in up to the front bumper. At which point it would not move one more inch. It also wouldn't reverse out. So I walked the quarter mile on to the house while my sister waited in the car. Harold took his tractor out and pulled the car out of the mud and hauled it to the house. We started it. There was the most awful clanging! The oil pan was bent, so Harold kindly went to work on that. While Louise called my father. I came into the living room in time to hear her say, "Now Uncle Sam, don't be too mad at her." She shoed me back out of the house. I don't know what else she said, but when Dad got there he actually was NOT angry. Stern but not angry. I don't think that anyone else could have done that. No one except his favorite niece.

Sharon, Keith and all of her loved ones, I pray for God to fold you in his arms and comfort you. I know that you miss this lovely woman.

Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints. PS 116:15
