

Ray "Butch" Wilkins Stucker

December 10, 1943 - June 8, 2020

Ray "Butch" Stucker of Cartwright, Oklahoma passed away suddenly on June 8, 2020. Butch was born on December 10, 1943 in Denver, Colorado to Ray and Loraine Stucker. He attended and graduated from high school in Artesia, California. Butch enlisted in the United States Navy on January 18, 1967 where he served five tours in Viet Nam and was awarded The National Defense Service Metal and The Viet Nam Service Metal. Butch was honorably discharged on January 22, 1969. On December 10, 1987 he married Deborah Ramsey.

Butch is preceded in death by his grandparents, his parents Ray and Loraine Stucker and his uncle Jimmy who passed in The Battle of The Bulge.

Butch is survived by his wife Deborah Diane (Ramsey) Stucker of the home, his children Ray Jr. Stucker, Kelly Jo and Joe Piscitelli, Jodi Ramsey, Rob Ramsey and wife Staci, Christopher Stucker, and wife Crystal, Aaron Stucker, and Amber and Casey Clark.

The family has selected cremation, and are under the direction of Brown's Funeral Service Durant

Comments

“ A funny memory of my brother was. When I was about 16years old we went to a elks club dance , with our mom an step dad. We were all dancing ,Ray came back to our table slightly irritated I asked what's wrong? He said none of these girls will let me lead. Then he said will you dance with me? So off we went ,we're dancing and he started laughing , I asked what's so funny ? He replied Dammit Cheryl you're the only one I can dance with and you have to be my friggin little sister.! I will love and miss him forever

BillCheryl Sickler - June 28, 2020 at 01:30 PM

“ My soulmate, love of my life and an awesome husband and Father!
We will miss him with all our hearts!!
I love you to infinity and beyond!

Deb Stucker - June 17, 2020 at 11:40 AM