“ I first met Bro. Alan when he came to preach a revival at our church in Platter, Oklahoma in the mid 1990's. Great experiences of the Holy Spirit in his services. Went to see him preach revival at County Line in 2002 or maybe 2003 after we moved back from Waco, Texas. He ask me to come up and help him with alter/prayer service and as he prayed for folks they were falling out in the spirit. After we were done we looked around and the only ones left standing was myself and Bro. Alan.

He was a great piano player and singer and Evangelist. We will miss you but, Heavens sweeter with you there!

“ The first time I met Alan Davenport, was in the Pentecostal Holiness church in Carnegie Oklahoma. I walked in to the service and the presence of God was so strong and sweet I just sat down in the next to the last row of seats with my eyes shut and just enjoy the peace of God. Alan and I came to love one another as friends and ministry companions. I thank God for the impact Alan had on my life. .
