“ I met Alice in Betsy's Quilts store many years ago. She immediately radiated love and joy and beauty! She showed me one of her dolls that she made...unbelievably beautiful. I will miss her and her joyful self. RIP Alice.

“ Alice was a wonderful quilting friend. Her friends at Mama's Log House will miss her and her many talents. I enjoyed her music, especially when she played the dulcimer and sang at Sam's retirement party. She loved her family and friends dearly. I loved her and will miss our happiness when we were together.
