“ Sorry for your loss. Allen and I always talked about each other cars and what others were driving during our senior year at South. It was always fun talking to him.

“ Allen is a kind, loving, caring man who loves Jesus, and because of that great love for Christ, he was a wonderful father to his children, a best friend and true love to his wife; a man of integrity in his work and life. His work on earth is done, but his soul is alive and well with Jesus, waiting in Gods Glory to be reunited with his family in the heavenly kingdom.

My heart weeps for Stacey and family, and my prays will continue for that peace that passes all understanding. May the arms of Jesus hold you and His compassion and love surround you as you walk this heartbreaking journey.

I love you.....
