“ I have known Anita virtually all my life. In all that time, I never knew her not to be happy and smiling. She was such a beautiful person and someone I admired, and respected a great deal. I know that she has found peace with Mike and Michelle and B-boy and Granny Fran. Rest in peace, Anita

“ Anita and I have been friends for over 50 years, we met thru our husbands that were gun collectors, it was so easy to become friends, we shared the same values of family and life. We shared lots of wonderful times together that will never be forgotten, Rest in Peace my friend, I have missed you so much the last several years during your long illness but now you are healed with your savior Jesus Christ. Loved You and your family. Patricia
