Mary Annette Moss, 77, of Norman, OK, passed away on December 14, 2022, after living a wonderful, full, and spirited life.

She built a successful political campaign management firm in Norman. Some of the notable campaigns she worked with included Governor George Nigh, the legalization of parimutuel horse racing and numerous mayoral, State Senate and House of Representative campaigns.

Annette loved music and was an accomplished vocalist. She was a featured entertainer at the annual Sand Bass Festival in Madill, OK. She also loved to travel to Hawaii, Santa Fe and other exotic locations.
