“ I remember Archie as a very nice boy in high school, and a very good basketball player. I am so sorry for your loss, I know you will miss him so much, So thankful for the years the two of you have shared together, such beautiful memories you will treasure in your heart. Praying for peace and comfort for all family and friends.

“ So sorry for Archies passing but God has bigger plans for him. Met Archie in high school in 1961-62. He was a workaholic on the basketball court. Played together for 2 years. Always admired Archie for his friendship and love of others. Linda I know you will miss him. Truly a great guy
