“ I remember Billy Ray as a hard worker, inherited no doubt. A talented man who could do anything he set his mind to. Yes indeed he was an Isenberg. And though you are with those who have passed before you now Billy Ray, I have peace in my heart because I know I will see you again soon. Love you!

Do not stand at my grave and weep

I am not there, I do not sleep

I am a 1,000 winds that blow

I am the diamond glints on snow

I am the sun on ripened grain

I am the gentle autumn rain

When you awaken in the morning's hush

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled light

I am the soft star that shines at night

Do not stand at my grave and cry

I am not there; I did not die.
