“ _____ Family:

I am sorry for your loss. When we lose someone we love it can seem like we are swallowed up by our grief. The Bible describes death as an enemy, and how true that is. We alone cannot overcome this enemy, but the Bible tells us that Jehovah God will destroy death forever. Then what will be the result, Revelation 21:3,4 says: "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Death will be no more, how comforting that is. I hope this brings you comfort in your time of grief.

“ I am so sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. May the God of all comfort sustain you as you await the promises found at John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:4 where God promises to do away with all the things that cause us suffering and pain including death here on the earth forever. It is my sincere hope that these thoughts comfort your family at this time.
