My Family Loved Bro Davenport and Juanita. He was always there when we needed him. The last picture I have of him was at his reception at the church in Purcell. I will cherish it forever. He was a Special Man of God. May you rest in Peace Br. Davenport.

“ *To the Davenport Family:
Maysville had the opportunity to have this wonderful man in our community for several years. He was a minister, but most of all the example of a pastor. Everyday he would be in the hospitals and nursing home praying for the sick, and most of all offering an encouraging word. Enjoy the rest that is so deserved.*

“ Brother DAVENPORT and my Daddy were good friends and often when my Daddy was Home they would meet mostly at Gas n Go and visit. Talked politics bc when my Dad passed in his address book it read : Bro. Davenport Democrat only Him, My Daddy and myself understood those shenanigans. He was such a comfort when my Daddy passed and I needed to talk. Till I see you again Brother Davenport. Tell my Daddy I Love Him.
