“ *You are diffently someone that has always been in my thoughts and always will. Texas street was a big part of my life. To this day I love eating ice cream in the mornings, I smile when I roll up my wash cloths, or when I see tall colored bottles in a bathroom. I can remember the smell of clean clothes washing, while we played on the celler, waiting for Guy to get home for we could go feed the cows. I can't believe that every cow had a name. I was the first one to lose a mother, I miss her every day, my life has been so lonely and at times very difficult with out her all I have had is memories to keep me close, BOBBIE you made some of the best ones, I miss you. I know you will be great sitting with your oldest sister

“ To Bobbie's family.

This is one of the saddest days I have had in my life.

Bobbie was my older sister whom I have loved dearly for 75 years. She was not big in size but she was my big sister.

School was a very hard time for me because of my shyness, first day of every year I cried all the way to school. But big sister was there by my side then to console me just like she has been through out our lives.

Bobbie loved her dear brother and was close to her sisters.

She will be dearly remembered by her four siblings that are left behind.

Bobbie is in a good place and was welcomed by her loved ones that were waiting. One of her sisters, Jerry Bassett

I miss you as much today if not more than that day when you left us. So much has happened since you've been gone. Whitney had a beautiful wedding in June after you left. She now has a 21 month little boy named Beckham born on Danny's Birthday in 2016. Now expecting the 2nd baby in March of 2018. You would be very proud of my babies. We have a PA & PTA. Loved you then, now, and forever. Debbie
