“ Goodbye to a “man” whose life lasted far longer than anyone needed it to. Nothing about him will be missed by anyone who mattered. His legacy is a trail of failures—projects abandoned, responsibilities ignored, people left behind. Forgetting his name will be effortless for those he neglected and discarded. Let his name disappear with him.

The only name worth remembering is the one his father, brother, and sister-in-law were too selfish to acknowledge in his obituary: BRYANNA—the daughter to whom he gave nothing but his DNA, yet who deserved everything he never gave.

So goodbye to the failed father, failed spouse, failed man, and failed human being.
