“ Bryant was like a brother. I have so many memories of him. I remember so many fun times with Keith and Bryant as well as my parents and Bryant. I remember the little league Patriots team we played on. I remember the Florida vacation trip with Bryant and my parents. We spent countless weekends either at his house or mine, sand point or durant. Fishing, riding motorcycles, football, basketball and running through the tennis courts just to turn off the lights and run away laughing. Well we did that once and a senior punched my lights out. We decided to not do that anymore. Most of us in middle school were jealous of Bryant. I mean who wouldnt be?? He was a star football player, toughest kid in our grade, girls liked him, and most importantly he had a mustache!!! Bryant we are going to miss you! You were an incredible friend and in my opinion an incredible brother. I will miss you greatly. To his family, im deeply sorry for your loss.
