

Candice Anita (Cline) Moore

August 17, 1956 - January 21, 2025

Candice Anita Moore, affectionately known as "Candy" to her friends and family, embraced her Heavenly Father's arms on January 21, 2025. Born in Ft. Worth, Texas on August 17, 1956, Candy's zest for life and people left a trail of joy until her final home in Durant, Oklahoma. Candy's parents, Jim Willard and Leva Alene (Hatter) Cline, predeceased her, but the love and lessons they imparted lived on through her enduring spirit.

Candy is survived by her brother, Gary Lee Cline Sr. and wife, Carolyn, their children Gary Lee Cline II, Alex Cline and his wife Heather, and their seven grandchildren. She is survived by her former husband, Mike Valentine, and their children Luke Timothy Valentine and his wife Heather, Shira Lynn Riley and her husband Michael, Amy Jo Hernandez and her husband Ulises. She is preceded in death by her former husband, Bobby McClain, and survived by their son, Daniel Paul McClain. She is preceded in death by her husband, Doyle Moore, and survived by stepchildren: Rickey Doyle Moore and wife Sherry, Rebecca Ann Hood and husband Robin, Robert Glenn Moore and wife Sarah. She is survived by her grandchildren, Toby, Alezander, Felicity, Sophie, Isaac, Elena, and Nico and step grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her nephew, Matthew Mayes.

Her vocation as a homemaker was nothing short of legendary. As a mother,

Candy was unparalleled. She was all about the moment of making memories with her children and later in life with her grandchildren. Her grandchildren were the apples of her eye, each cherishing memories of grandma's time playing games, crafting, and songs. Candy loved serving the Lord and attending church with her family. She made an effort to be there every time the doors were open. Singing in the choir at church was a Sunday staple. Her love for sewing was only matched by her passion for games. She was a competitor of Yahtzee, Farkle, Dominoes, Bingo, and Rummy. She always had dice on her and was ready to roll at any notice.

Candy's life was a living example of her faith-filled, selfless, and adventurous spirit. She never shied away from a challenge, whether it was mastering a new card game or navigating the complexities of life with humor and grace. She was the most resourceful person around and could fix just about anything. Despite the physical challenges, nothing was going to hold her back from enjoying the fullness of life with others, especially her family. She played her hand with a smile that could light up the darkest room, and a heart big enough to hold all the love that came her way. Candy's life was a tapestry of love, laughter, and song. She was the heart and soul of her family and will be greatly missed by all those she knew.

“ I didn't get to know cousin Candy very well, as we only made it down to visit once, occasionally twice a year, and then only for a little while, but I remember her best in her mid-late teens. She was so beautiful, and sweet, and soft-spoken, and I (eleven years younger) was in awe of her. She always seemed happy; full of joy. I wish I had gotten to know her better. I can only imagine the loss you must be feeling now. I'm sure Daddy and Grandma met her with love and welcome at the gates. I am grateful that I had the privilege of knowing her. May your memories of her light up the days to come. Gina Corley Ryan.

“ Where to begin? Candy and I (and my siblings) go back to early childhood. There are so many memories of spending days together, attending each others church, playing piano, games that we made up and just laying out on the picnic table looking at the clouds or stars at night! Then we grew up, got married, had families and made more memories. Candy and I both lost our husbands around the same time and had to learn to navigate a new stage in life. A recent memory that I will never forget is late one night Candy was feeling her feisty and energetic self, gave me a call and we talked until around 3 am reminiscing about old times and funny things that have happened raising kids! I will never forget that night. It was like our own little slumber party by phone. We laughed til it hurt. Candy, I will miss you so much but find comfort in knowing that I will see you again because I know where you are. Even though my phone will not reach you now, we will make up for this temporary separation! Love you much and sending love to Luke, Amy, Shira and Daniel and your families!

“ Candy was a sweet caring person. Even more she was my first cousin. Candy would give my sister and I piano lessons when I was in the 2nd grade. She always had something for us to do and we would do skits and always have the best time. Could not be a better person. I know so many will miss her. Singing with the Angels. We love you Candy.
