“ Cheryl,

My heart is heavy at the news of Carolyn's passing. I thoroughly enjoyed working with your mother. She was a joy to be around: helpful, optimistic and wonderful with the students.

You and your family have my prayers and sympathy at this difficult time.

“ Something beautiful is never forgotten but lives on in the memory and the heart. Your kindness, humor, and loving spirit touched so many lives simply because you existed on this earth. I was so blessed to have you as my sister and we will always share that special bond. I do not know how I will go on without you, but you live in my heart and memory and thinking of you even now bring me comfort (as was your way Big Sis...always comforting others). You were a best friend to all in our family. I will miss our talks and the laughter. You will always be loved.

“ I am so sorry to learn of Carolyn's death; she was a wonderful woman, and the highest accolade I can give any of my friends who teach: she was a good teacher. She was also a good neighbor--she offered to "help take care of me" anytime I might need her (she also volunteered Dicky). Ironically, she went before this old woman. I will miss not having her across the street.

“ Dear Dicky and family:

I am so sorry about Carolyn. Living out of town I did not know that she was ill. I always loved to teach with her and will always remember that wonderful smile and infectious laughter!! She is missed already...God has been given a wonderful angel. God's Blessings and strength to each of you in the coming days.
