“ My heart sank today as I opened the mail and learned of Aunt Carolyn’s passing. She was such a gentle soul with a calm spirit and a deep love for family, friends and her faith. While the earth lost a beautiful person God and the angels were welcoming her to her eternal home; oh what a celebration that must have been. Mine and Ken’s thoughts and prayers are with Grandma Kathleen, Gary, Melissa, Michael Cara and their families. May each of you experience the presence and comfort of the Lord during this difficult time.

“ A kind, caring and loving daughter, mother, wife grandmother and friend! She will be missed by all. As the mother of my children, she always did it right and raised two wonderful women who do it right. Gary, my heart goes out to you in your grief. I deeply appreciate you and all your efforts in taking care of Carolyn! Especially the past 13-14 years through her battles with cancer and arthritis. She couldn’t have done it with out YOU! Thank you!!

“ I am saddened to hear our Aunt Carolyn has passed. When we visited OKC as children, she would always pick us up for church, took us to ballgames, shopped together and got our hair done. This was way before Melissa and Michael came into this world. So, I know what a great Mom she’d be and was. Bless the Gibson and Wullenwaber Families now and in times to come.

Memories of Aunt Carolyn are precious ones. We will hold her beauty and kindness in our hearts forever. She had such a beautiful voice and sang wonderfully at church. Aunt

Carolyn loved cross stitching tea towels as gifts and I will cherish mine and our memories together forever. Gary, Kathy and I hope to visit again when you are up to company. Thinking of you daily. Sending our love and prayers to the Gibson and Wullenwaber family members. Love, Michelle Harvey Troupe

“ The thing that always struck me about Carolyn, among her other attributes mentioned so lovingly by others that knew her, was her voice. It was the most gentle and reassuring sound I could hear... no matter how life-stressed or sad one might be, she had a way of comforting me just in her wonderful way of talking about anything or just saying hello and asking how you were. There will be so many mentions of her kindness and generous spirit mere words cannot fully describe, but that wonderfully soft yet present voice and way of speaking always made me feel better than I had before talking with her; that's what I'll miss most...

“ It is with a heavy heart that I post on this site. Carolyn was my mother-in-law and I loved her! I could not have asked for better. I remember the first time we met. I had just started dating her daughter, Michael Cara. We all went to lunch in Stillwater, OK at Stillwater Bay. She was lovely from the start. I was a bit surprised she let me date her daughter as there was an age difference of 13 years (you read that right!), but she was understanding and welcoming.

Through the years, we developed quite the friendship. She always called me Michael Joe, which still resonates in my ears. She was interested in our lives; what was happening and with whom. She even volunteered to stay with our newborn for a week while we went to Hawaii! Unfortunately, this coincided during the worst ice storm in the last 40 years here in Kansas City! I don't think she left the house!

They moved to the Big D ranch shortly after Michael and I got married. We spent many hours riding 4 wheelers with the littles, feeding cattle and doing odd projects with our boys, not just to keep them busy, but also to make them feel important. Which they were.

She was a thoughtful, caring and loving person. I am going to miss her voice, her face and her quiet demeanor. She embodied what it means to be blessed, and in turn, be a blessing.
