

Charlene Cook Green

May 27, 1932 - May 31, 2015

Charlene Cook Green went home to be with her Lord and Savior on May 31, 2015 in Durant, Oklahoma at the age of 83 years and 4 days. Charlene was born on May 27, 1932 in Durant to Charlie and Mamie Bell Phillips Cook. Charlene graduated from Durant Public Schools and has been a lifelong resident of Durant. She worked for K-Mart as a sales clerk and the Hollow Tree Gift Shop and Tea Room until the day she fell ill. Charlene was a devoted and loyal member of the Durant First Church of the Nazarene and she enjoyed studying her bible, reading and spending time with family and friends. Charlene was preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Cheryl Green Wakeland and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Charlene is survived by her daughters, Clarice Floyd and husband Steve of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma and Cathy Green of Durant; sister, Christine Goodin of Durant; grandsons, Demetrius Carter and wife Brandy and Matthew Reagan; niece, Yolanda Titchenal and husband Mike; nephew, Charlie John Goodin and wife Annette and numerous extended family and friends.

A celebration of Charlene's life will be held at 2:00 PM Thursday, June 4, 2015 at the Durant First Church of the Nazarene. Rev. John Kinsey will officiate. Interment will follow in Highland Cemetery with Mike Hull, Ed McCurry, Victor Cook, Hunter Runnels, Sam Vaughn and Harvey Vaughn serving as pallbearers. The family will receive friends at the Funeral Home on Wednesday evening from 6-8 PM. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.brownsfuneralservice.com.

Arrangements are under the direction of Brown's Funeral Service, Durant.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you.

I have so many memories of your family and treasure them dearly!!

I am so sorry that I was not able to attend the service.

Christine, I know the death of a sister must be very hard for you and I feel the loss for you. Your family was a part of the Reirdon family so for many years.

Much love,

Ella Byrd Reirdon Brown
