“ Charlie was a true gentleman. He was a great companion for fishing, hunting and golf. He was always good natured and fun to be around. I regret that our activities were cut short in 2018 due to my health problems. I will miss him. Our deepest sympathy to Dee and the family. Neal Taylor

“ Charlie and Dee were special friends of the Clint Goad family for many years. Charlie served his nation in the U.S. Air Force, which was an important bond with both Clint and his son, Mike. Dee was instrumental in the care of Gertrude for the latter years of her life. They are family to us. I salute a good man, a good friend, and a brother in Christ. May God hold you in his arms until we meet again!

“ We shared many good times with Charlie and Dee. From attending worship together and church activities. We camped, played dominoes and had many laughs. Charlie was always willing to help anyone in need. Prayers for Dee and all of family.
