“ im lost now without my little neighbors! the last call the fire dept got called out on for your address I wasn't even on the fire dept but I went full force and was fixing to leave my dr apt for you if noboby was in town! you and chuck were one of those I would've went through hell or high water literally for. now who am I going to watch and wait for to come home on time? make sure yall are ok? well now I know you are both ok and together again. one memory that pops into mind is when Chuck came over after he had had a very bad glucose spell. scared me to death when he told me that his sugar dropped and for me to watch him when he was outside, then scared me worse when he told me that you had to drive yall home from Atoka!!! you got yall safe home though! that was amazing! you were so proud of yourself when I walked him home and talked to you. you were one tough woman. I will adjust, just send me some signs from time to time from you and chuck cause I miss seeing yall. 25+ years is a long time to adjust for me. not many neighbors would allow my dogs to pester em for this many years, one day we will get our fence fixed :-), yall were the best!! im going to miss you

It's been so many years since I've gotten to see you. You moved away and so did I and we lost contact. We was friends for many years and I want to send love and prayers to your family. God Bless all of you. RIP dear Charlotte.
