“ I had met Cheryl at our annual Spring Birthday Bash but didn't really get to know her until her step son Jon and his wife Dayla (my daughter) had our little grandbaby Samuel who was only with us for a few hours. We stayed with Jon & Dayla the first week home from the hospital and Cheryl was literally a life saver! I knew how to cook , clean and accommodate guests, but having her nursing skills in the house to assist my daughter's recovery was greatly appreciated! Take care of our Samuel, Cheryl. Much love and prayers for her friends & the rest of the family.

“ Cheryl was my amazing friend & I loved her like she was my sister. She had a heart of gold & a beautiful soul!! We moved across the street from one another just days apart & became the best of friends but actually & more like sisters than just friends. She helped me in so many ways during those difficult days of growing up & was always there . Thanks to the wonders of facebook we got to reconnect & we had some serious conversations. I kept telling myself I was going to make the drive to go visit with her but I just kept putting it off & I'm so disappointed that I didn't, I guess I never believed her time was coming to an end. Whatever Cheryl did she's did it with love & grace. I know she's was an amazing nurse as that's what she's always taked about when we were growing up & always wanting to helping others. She loved talking about her children & grandbabies & posting videos of her baby Dar!! So now she is all of our Guardian Angel so for my beautiful & wonderful friend, fly high. You are missed!! Life is truly a gift, Julie Lichtenstein

“ My first memory of Cheryl was the day Baby Dar was born!! Cheryl was always very gracious when we came to visit. She loved her children and grandchildren and would sacrifice everything for thier well being. I know her family will be lost without her. Rest in Peace Cheryl; you have taught them well.
