“ Cheryl was my best friend since we met in approximately 1972. She was a student nurse and I was already a R. N. She worked as a student ,I was her supervisor.
I loved Cheryl and will miss her being in this world immensely .

“ Cheryl, you were a great addition to the Wilson family and you made a great new cousin. You were so kind to me when I was a kid, you pierced my ears using a needle and a potato, you helped me pick out school clothes with the summer money I made, you taught me how to draw better, and you were there to help me plan my wedding and even let me wear your veil. I always thought you were so pretty and talented. I will miss seeing you again but you will always be in my heart and in my memories. I still have the recipe box you made for me as a wedding present filled with recipes for two people. Its 50 years old now but I use it constantly. I will think of you often and smile. May the Lord keep you and bless you!
Condolences to all who loved Cheryl and to her children and grandchildren who she loved best of all!

“ Cheryl you have always been amazing, such a smart, talented, unique individual. You have been around me most of my adult life- since before Rachel was born, and you were always there at important family events ready to lend a hand where needed. You have always been an important part of our lives. While you are an amazing artist, perhaps your greatest accomplishment is that of the best grandmother anyone could hope to be. You are loved by so many, and you will be missed.

So sorry to hear this. Cheryl and I were very good friends throughout school. We went to church together and we were even baptized together at 13 yrs old at 7th and Beech Church of Christ were our families went for years. Our families were also good friends. I went thru the Carl Dean years with Cheryl, Steve and Becky. So many memories I have with her over the past 50 years. We were always in Art classes together and choir. Yes, Cheryl was a big part of my past and I will cherish the memories made together always. Sending my love and prayers. 💛
