“ I first met Chris when I was staying with Yeni's family in Oklahoma. I felt like home the first time I met her. She was so warm and welcoming. Each time we came to visit, she would welcome us with a big smile. Thanks Chris for made me feel like home and welcomed me like a family. Rest in peace Chris.. You'll be missed.. May God brings comfort to the family..

“ Chris always had a smile on her face. There wasn't a day that went by when we worked together that she could always make a bad day better. She was unique in her way and that's what made her special. Chris would always bring joy to my mother and I. Chris will be missed but I know her and my mom are singing with the angels. RIP love
