July 25, 2024

Corbett Potter, 60, of Mead, Oklahoma passed away suddenly on the evening of Thursday, July 25, 2024. He was born to parents Herman and Willie Potter in Bell Flower, California on September 21, 1963. Corbett was a dynamic and talented musician with unmatched passion for his craft. He spent much of his busy life traveling to gigs and playing with the best musicians out there. He proudly obtained endorsements from LosCabos Drumsticks and Saluda Cymbals. He entertained thousands at countless venues and his beloved church. While drums were his passion, his true gift was imparting wisdom and knowledge to other musicians, new and seasoned.

He lived a full life, teaching us all how to balance family, work, and play. He was an unforgettable presence and will be missed by so many friends and family members. We are completely unprepared for this unexpected loss and miss him greatly. Anyone that knew Corbett would first say he was a great musician, followed by an amazing friend, mentor, and witness. He loved his wife and daughters imparting to them the tenacity in which he daily lived his life.

Corbett is survived by his wife Jessica Potter; daughters Allisyn Potter, Alyssa Duro and husband Nate, Brooke Minges, and Lauren Karis Potter; brother

James Potter; grandsons Hawkan Haakanson, Hunter Haakanson, Bane Duro, and Brock Duro and numerous extended family and friends.

Oh, what a shock and loss! My heartfelt prayers go out to you Jessica, daughters and entire family of this amazing child of God! My long-time memory of Corbett is seeing him at Victory's 1995 Jubilee, with his long hair, DANCING IN THE AISLES TO THE LORD!! Made a lasting impression!! And the years that followed only added to his legacy! May it live on, and IT WILL! Go DANCE WITH JESUS, brother! 🙌

“ Corbett was just one of the best people I've ever met! We got together a few times to play music, but it didn't matter if we were playing or just talking, or hanging out with nothing particular going on, he was just a beacon of life, love, and energy. So good to just be around. God bless, and I'll miss you sir!!

I am Charlie Kirk.

So sad to have a relatives life end so tragically. I grew up with both James and Corbett. Both great men. Corbett was an awesome mechanics. There was nothing he and his brother could not build or fix. I will regret not reaching out to him. I just wanted to see him playing drums with his band and meeting his family.
