“ Grandpa Durham

You will forever be loved, remembered and missed. I only regret that we didn't get to see you whenever we wanted because we lived so far apart, but I know we will have a reunion someday up in heaven.

You would be very proud of your great grandson Jason Durham, he graduated high-school this year (a year early) and he's working a full time job, saving his money to go to college next year.

Michael and I are doing good, work way to much...but God gives us strength. This coming April we'll be married 24 years, wow how time flys.

Well I hope you and Pops (Dad Durham) are having a great time together...Miss you both so much!!!

*Love always,
Michael, Samantha & Jason Durham*

“ My Uncle Dan, Oh how I loved to see that smile on your face when I came to see you. I wish I could have seen you more. I will cherish our last visit and the plant hanger you gave me. I love and miss you more than words can say. Say hi to my mom for me. Love Deb...
