“ Granny was a fierce woman who loved with all her heart and passed this trait on to her daughters. She was a relentless cheerleader for her grandson, Chris, and was always in his corner supporting him and all of his endeavors. She held on tightly to the things she had that reminded her of her loved ones and took pride in her family for everything they accomplished but also all of their potential.
I didn't get to know her well but I am so happy for everyone who did and am grateful for how well she loved them. Granny will be forever missed and always, always loved.
