“ Sharon and I remember Debbie as being one person who lived life to the fullest . She could multi-task and get more done than any person you would ever meet. Debbie was full of love for her family and for the Lord she served. We did not lose Debbie for things that are lost will never be seen again Debbie is waiting for the ones she loves and we will all be together again . Our prayers for comfort will be heard by God's Holy Spirit and we will dwell in the House of the Lord forever. Rick and Sharon Munholland
