“ You were a great provider, uncle Delbert. I remember as a kid the street dances and blue river get togethers dad would take us to. Those grand-kids are amazing and will miss you greatly. Being a "naminaw" myself I can tell they think you and their granny hung the moon...lol. Lit a purple candle-the color of royalty. From C'Lara Byles Star (I like my name pronounced w/a soft c now vs a hard c...lol)

“ Our youngest brother , Delbert , I will truly miss you "Barney". We tried to see each other as much as possible but that was not enough time. We shared some good conversations, times and memories. I admired all you accomplished in life and with your family. You showed them love, life and true hard work. Our youngest sibling but our grandest sibling. Love you brother. Until we meet again, Rest in Peace.

Your brother,

Jackie Dale Byles Sr. and family

“ If I had to chose one picture that most accurately depicted my Dad in his element, this one would be it. Being outside in his chicken yard was his “happy place”, his getaway from the day-to-day routine. My Dad was a hard working man and he was a great man. He always made sure that we were all taken care of and that we had everything we needed in life. He also has done the same for his grandchildren. My Dad was a man of few words but I promise you that when he spoke, you listened...he had no filter and whatever he had to say, he was going to say it. The good, the bad, and the ugly. But that was my Dad and I wouldn't have had it any other way. I know he's up there watching over his yard and his family. I will miss you everyday until I see you again Dad. I love you.

Avery always had good things to say about your dad. She really had a soft spot in her heart for him. I think he did for her too!! May God comfort iou Whitnee. It's hard losing a dad but he really was a noble man as he took care of his family and was diligent day in and day out about making sure his family was taken care of.

“ We have had some good times in our 36 years Delbert. I just want you to know that I am going to miss you so, so much. I know you will be watching over us, taking care of us as you did here on earth. You were such a great daddy to our children, and provided very well for us. Our kids and grandkids are going to miss you very much. I will see you one day soon Delbert. With all my love, Paula.
