Dempsey L. "Butch" Jackson II

Born – December 6th, 1962

Died – October 8th, 2010

Dempsey L. "Butch" Jackson, II, born December 6th, 1962 passed away on October 8, 2010 at the VA hospital in Dallas Texas. Butch was born in Poteau, Oklahoma and moved to Durant at a very young age. He was a 1981 graduate of Durant High School and was proud to be a member of the 1980 Lions State Championship football team as well as a State Champion weight lifter. Following his high school graduation, he enrolled at Southeastern Oklahoma State University and joined the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity and made lifelong friends. In 1984, Butch enlisted in the Marines, following a family tradition of military service. He was stationed at Camp Pendleton in San Diego, CA. After his honorable discharge in 1988, Butch moved back to Durant, OK and later graduated with a degree in Electrical Engineering from SOSU. Following graduation he worked locally in Durant and later in the Sherman, Denison and Dallas areas.

Butch was preceded in death by his mother, Lavonia "Anne" Jackson, father, Dempsey Jackson, and sister Cynthia Leigh Ray. He is survived by sister Ginger Chauncey and her husband George of Denison, TX, sister Demie Estupinan, Gallup, NM and brother Robert Jackson and his wife Susan of Frisco, TX in addition to several nieces, nephews and grand-nieces and nephews.

A memorial service is scheduled for Friday, October 22nd at Brown's Funeral Home in Durant, OK at 11:00 a.m.
