

Dennis Ray Wagoner

November 6, 1955 - April 4, 2012

Dennis Ray Wagoner, Sr., age 57, a Mannsville area resident passed away on Wednesday, April 4, 2012 at Mercy Memorial Hospital in Ardmore, Oklahoma. He was born on November 6, 1955 to Robert “Bob” and Jean Ann (Aderholtz) Wagoner in Madill, Oklahoma. He was a painter for a trailer distributor. Dennis was a very stubborn headed and had his way with everyone. He loved when all his family would get together. Everyone knows he loved to pester his kids. He was very proud and loved to spend time with his grandkids. He had a heart of gold and would help any of his family or friends, but at times it was ask at your risk because if you needed to borrow twenty dollars, payback might have been fifty just depending on the mood he was in. he was very impatient if you was going anywhere with him, you had better be ready when he was or you would get left behind. He didn't like a sad situation.

He is survived by his parents, Robert “Bob” and Jean Wagoner of Mannsville; brother, William “Will” Wagoner and wife Terri of Madill; children, Jennifer Wagoner of Mannsville, Mistie Merritt and husband Michael and Dennis Wagoner, Jr. and wife Ashley both of Kingston; grandchildren, Dane Wagoner of Mannsville, Dylan Merritt, Brittany Merritt, Joshlynn and Kynlee Wagoner and Tesla Wagoner all of Kingston; ex-wife and mother of his children, Tridinda Fuston of Madill; nieces, Laura Bishop and Christy Mathis both of Madill; along with many dear and loved friends.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Will and Onia Wagoner.
