“ *My deepest condolences to your family for the loss of your dear loved one. May you find comfort in knowing that one day soon "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." (Isa.25:8) Then the promise is given that "the righteous will possess the earth, and they will live forever on it."(Ps.37:29) We can be assured of this because "God, who cannot lie..." has promised this. “ We met the day I closed on my townhouse, 5/30/02. He wore a black tee, dark blue button up shirt (unbuttoned) & light blue jeans & brown work boots. The blue tone from his shirt accented the color in his eyes. He came over to play pool with me & bought me a wine to celebrate with me. He said he had a truck & he would help me move. I had about 10 other people offered to help me that week but something told me he was the one to call. & I did. & we spent every weekend together from that day on for many, many months before living together. He took me to my 1st race! We were still friends & were making plans & my heart is heavy with this loss as I feel like we were not finished. My sympathy to Jack & Pauline & all of his family. Hugs

“ Don was a one of a kind stand up man. Always a gentleman with a contagious laugh and big smile. I cannot express enough how sad I am that he is gone from his life here on earth. His memory will always be a treasure in my heart. God Bless his Pauline and Jack and the rest of his family.
