“ There's not one memory of Donald Wayne that stands out as better or more special to me. I love and cherish every memory that works its way back to the forefront of my mind. He was shy but not around me. He was funny and full of orneriness. He and I would scheme together to play tricks or scare the other kids. When we got together we were bad. Playing jokes, teasing, hiding things and yes sneaky. Smoking grapevine, hiding from the other kids and hiding things from them. He taught me how to identify good skipping stones. He was the cousin closest to my age being 1-year, 3-months my junior and he was also one of my best friends. I loved him then, now and forever. I cannot be at his memorial nor funeral but I know he understands. Someday we will climb trees, swing, laugh, and be together again. Until then, sleep well my cousin, my buddy, my friend.

“ When I was a kid I came to visit Uncle Bill and Aunt Dee and antlers at their house all us kids would play out in the yard after dark playing hide and seek or catching fireflies it was such a special time in our lives as kids. I love the memories of all us cousins playing together.

“ When Donnie Wayne would come to Chaffee in Ft. Smith in the summers to do Army reserve maneuvers, he would come visit me. This was 1991, 1992. He would tell me funny stories of the stuff they had to do in training and share some MREs with me! One time, he made me and Matthew some dog tags. I loved those dog tags through the years because my cousin Donnie Wayne made them for me. I still have them. They are more precious to me now. He always was so generous. He wrote me a letter last Christmas. That was the first time I learned he had cancer. I will always cherish his letter to me. In all the years I've been sending Christmas letters to my family, Donnie Wayne and Aunt Ada were the ones who have written letters to me. That's so special to me.

“ I remember when we were kids and it was deer hunting season, Uncle Bill and Donnie Wayne would come to Ma's and Pa's place in Ozark, Arkansas. I wanted to be like him and go deer hunting, too! But I didn't get to go. I just loved seeing my cousins from Antlers and Aunt Dee and Uncle Bill. Donnie Wayne was the only boy at deer season in a house full of girl cousins plus his sisters. He would get si flustered when we teased him. He so so so shy, he would turn beet red whenever one of the girls would joke with him. I was shy too, so I knew how he felt! I will miss him very much.
