

Doris J. Claborn

June 17, 1935 - June 14, 2012

Doris (Hill) Claborn, 76, born and raised in Durant, OK, passed from this life on June 14, 2012, to be with her Lord and Savior. Doris was born in Durant, June 17, 1935, to Fred E. Hill and Berta Hammons. Doris was one of eight children. The one and only love of her life was Eddie. Doris and Eddie were married August 30th 1952. Doris attended school in Durant. She worked in the nursing profession for many years. She was the mother of five children and always put her family first. If you came to her door she met you with a hug and a smile and always had something to feed you. Her loves included cooking, music, and singing.

She was preceded in death by her mother and father, a daughter, Doris Clarice Maines, two brothers Lloyd and Freddie, four sisters, Wanda, Lila, Shula and Missy.

She is survived by husband Eddie of the home, three sons, Gary and wife Dawn, Joe and wife Nancy, Mike and wife Amy and one daughter, Janet. Also, three grandsons, Eddie Peden, Matthew Gilliam and Jacob Gilliam, two great granddaughters, Kenya Peden and Brittany Peden, three great grandsons, Harley Peden, Malachi Gilliam and Ethan Gilliam, one sister, Shirley Benton and numerous nieces and nephews.

Doris was the type of person who never met a stranger, only a friend.

Graveside services will be held at 10:00 Am, Saturday, June 16, 2012 at Highland Cemetery with Elder Jack Blount officiating. Family hour will start at 5PM, Friday, June 15, 2012 at Brown's Funeral Service Chapel.

“ Laid to rest on this day the sweetest lady and Aunt a girl could have. I have so many wonderful memories of growing up and spending family time with Aunt Doris and all the family. She loved the water and could sing a beautiful tune my fav was "My buckets got a hole in it and I can't swim" I love my Aunt and will miss her very much. God Bless
