

Earnest Lee Hamby

October 23, 1943 - January 22, 2021

Earnest Hamby passed away peacefully at TMC, Denison, Texas, on the evening of January 22, 2021. He was born to Jack and Rose Hamby of Yuba, OK, on October 23, 1943.

He was a Husband, Brother, Father, Grandfather, and Great Grandfather, and wonderful friend to many others. He graduated from Yuba High School in 1961 in Yuba, Oklahoma. Shortly after graduation, he met Glenda Mae Ervin Hamby, the love of his life, and the two married on October 26, 1963. They then had two children, daughter Kim Hamby Stephens, and son Ricky Hamby. When he was not selling cars, and most everyone around here has bought at least one car from him, he spent time on his farm. The farm was his true passion. He raised many cattle and grew many crops in his 78 years.

He is survived by his wife Glenda Mae Ervin Hamby of Yuba, OK, Daughter Kim Hamby Stephens her husband Vernon of Yuba, OK, Son Ricky Hamby of Yuba, OK. Granddaughters Abby Rattan and husband Tyler of Bonham, Tx, Kaytlyn Ashlock (Austin) of Ravenna, Tx, and three great-grandchildren, Tucker Rattan (his bike riding and pillow fighting buddy), Maverick Rattan, and Andi Kayt Ashlock. Sister Doris Durham and her husband Perry of Bonham, Tx.

He was preceded in death by brothers Glen (Wink) Hamby, Billy Joe Hamby, Norman (Jip) Hamby, and three sisters, Rosanne Johnson, Juanita Miller, and Louise Murphey.

Serving as Pallbearers are: Lee Hamby, Jeff Hamby, Kenny Sewell, Stanley Cobbs, Mark Rattan, and Raymond Hobbs

Graveside services will be held at Yarnaby Cemetery on Tuesday, January 26th, 2021 at 2:00 PM. Visitation time for the public to come to pay their respects will be on Monday, January 25th from noon to 8:00 PM. During this time the family asks that social distancing and facial coverings be worn for the respect and safety of all who attend. Services are under the direction of Brown's Funeral Service, Durant.

Special Thanks to all the staff in ICU at TMC and Dr. Robert Wilcott for all your care.
