For Our Angel © Lisa

We don't want to cry anymore, But the pain won't go away. Our hearts are torn in two, because our baby couldn't stay. We don't want to cry anymore, God had other plans for you. Mommy & Daddy will get thru this someday, but right now our world is blue. We don't want to cry anymore, we never thought we'd be torn apart. Even though we can't hold you in our arms, we will always hold you in our hearts. We don't want to cry anymore, Our Angel, there was nothing we could do. Mommy & Daddy will miss you so much, and never forget, we will always love you.
