

Edna Lee Cameron

July 3, 1956 - January 13, 2011

Edna Lee (Cameron) Nobles, 54 of Mead went to be with the Lord on Thursday, January 13, 2011 at her home. Edna was born on July 3rd, 1956 to James and Catherine (Bunch) Cameron in Durant, Oklahoma. She ran Cameron's Elder Care for the elderly in Sherman, Texas before she retired moving back to Oklahoma. She was a loving mother, wife grandmother and friend.

Edna is preceded in death by her parents, son Randell Dameron; sisters Linda Littrell, Opal Wells, and Betty Nichols.

She is survived by her husband Herbert "Jack" Nobles of the home; sons David Metcalf and wife Marcie of Mead, Kevin Metcalf and girlfriend Tamera of Durant, and Johnnie Metcalf of Durant; ex daughter-in-law Melissa Nation of Davis; sisters Anna Mae Williams and Irene Billy all of Durant; brother Billy Cameron of Colorado; step son Jack Nobles and wife Sarah of Denison; stepdaughters Karen Simpson and husband Michael and Lawonda Malone; grandchildren Courtney, Michael and Cameron Metcalf of Davis, Brooke Metcalf of Whitesboro, Haley and Hunter Moore of Mead, Allie Nobles,

Matthew Wood, Beth and Rebecca Kass of Denison, Stephani Ivey and husband Jeff, Michael Jr and wife Jessica Simpson, Breaden and Haylee Ivey, Rylie and Hayden Simpson, Brody Horn and Katlin Ivey; many nieces, nephews and friends who she loved with all her heart.

Memorial Service will be held on Tuesday, January 18, 2011 at Mead Baptist Church in Mead, OK at 11:00A.M. Bro. Kerry Groce will be officiating. Condolences may be sent to www.brownsfuneralservice.com.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

“ Edna Lee Cameron

January 08, 2023 at 11:32 PM

“ Sorry for your loss. Edna was a great friend to Joan and this was appreciated.

Jane Manners Sliger - January 16, 2011 at 12:00 AM