“ Well, I have been trying to think of the best words to write in memory of my Uncle Boy and they just won't come. There aren't enough words on the entire internet to describe what a kind gentleman he was, but still a true and brave patriot. I guess I can best sum it up with the words that I have heard since I was just a little girl. "They don't make them like that anymore."

“ Uncle "Boy" gave us so many memories. You all traveled so many places that I knew I would never see, but could "see" through your eyes! You broadened our borders with your travels.
It is sad to see this generation of our Hunnicutt family slip away. But imagine the reunion Uncle Boy is having with his brothers (including baby A.J. Who died during the depression), and his sisters - and most importantly with his precious Glenn and Amy - what joy to be reunited with family in heaven.
Yvonne you are in our thoughts and prayers - Iris Anne and Sam (niece and nephew from the Hunnicutt side of the family in Alabama).
