“ I'm going to miss grandpa very much I can't even express how much I'm going to miss grandpa. My plan was after I first got out of the military was to go see grandpa. Now instead of telling grandpa Hi I've gotta say goodbye. I think of grandpa as my hero and mentor growing up as a child. I always cherished the times we went fishing on the weekend every time in the summer and whenever the geese laid eggs he would make goose egg sandwiches for us just about every Sunday before church I even chresised the momments when we built dog houses and dog pens It hurt me deep inside when grandpa was put into the elderly folks home so I kind of knew that I had to prepare for the worst at any given time but even trying to prepare for the worst isn't good enough. All I can say now is goodbye for the last time and that I love you and you will be greatly missed.
