“ I remember my oatmeal and gummy bears,my soda, her willingness to give no matter what even sneaking me money behind my moms back and even grandpas a couple times lol. Her loving me no matter what I did. Her letter letting me spend the night on weekends, getting me from school if I faked sick. Most importantly I saw the joy in her face to me a week prior to passing when I walked in the hospital room kissed her on the forehead and told her Jesus said he wouldn't let her go until I saw her 1 more time. She could not speak but said everything with her eyes and I was assured she was read ymmv go not suffer anymore but tired and worn and as we all know... "Ready to go home"!
