

Fannie Luella Billy

March 15, 1939 - October 3, 2023

Fannie Luella (Cameron) Billy was born on March 15, 1939, in Barber, Oklahoma to Andrew and Emma (Pack) Cameron. Fannie entered the Gates of Heaven with her Lord and Savior on October 3, 2023, in Durant, Oklahoma at the age of 84. Fannie graduated from Sequoyah Indian School where she met Eugene Edmond Billy. They married shortly after high school and spent their lives together raising their family in California. Fannie worked for the US Government for 20 years until her retirement. After her health declined, she moved to Durant, Oklahoma to be cared for by her daughter Mary. She was a member of the Cherokee Nation and was of the Christian faith. In her free time, she enjoyed being a choir leader and singing. She dedicated her life to her Lord and Savior, her church, and her beloved family.

Fannie was preceded in death by her husband Eugene Edmond Billy; daughter Kathy Billy; parents Andrew and Emma Cameron and brothers Dave, Bill, George, Willie, and Eddie Cameron.

Fannie is survived by her children Mary Morrone and husband Ken, Joey Billy, and Paulette Billy; sister Ann Johnson; grandchildren Israel Bolivir, Paul Billy, Eric Billy, Randy Billy, Craig Billy, Sarah Billy, Rebecca Billy, Lorraine Billy, Michael Morrone, Joseph Morrone, Andrew Morrone, and Vanessa Morrone; numerous great grandchildren and many extended family and friends.

Graveside services will be held at 1:00 PM Tuesday, October 10, 2023, at Barber Cemetery in Cherokee County, Oklahoma. Minister Adam Thirsty will officiate. The family will receive friends at the Funeral Home on Monday evening from 6-8 PM. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.brownsfuneralservice.com.

Arrangements are under the direction of Brown's Durant Funeral Service and Crematory.
