Forrest was one of a kind. We played many hours at the south side park. Ricky Sweeney was one that played with us. Junior my younger brother I can't remember everyone but we would play all morning into the afternoon. There was never a fight just a good game of baseball. If we could only have some of those days back. Life goes on.

“ I didn't know Uncle Forrest very well, but my Dad (John Wagoner) loved him and spoke of him very highly and often. Uncle Forrest, you are my family and I'm sorry life was cut short. My family and I wish your family all the love and comfort in the world. I wish we could be there to see you off to Heaven, but I'll be deploying soon and need to get my affairs in order. All my love, Stephanie
