“ Diana, Mark, Brent, and Mr. Ellis, my heart is so heavy for all of you. Your Momma and Wife was one Treasured Lady. This grateful girl looked forward to every Chriatmas, Valentine's Day, and anytime we made up an excuse for a Class Party. It was the only time I got to eat Homemade Treats made with all your Momma's love. I could hardly wait for her to enter with all the trays of goodness. She saw to it that we had a good time together as little kids. She patiently corralled all of us when we had a Class Field Trip. She carried a true servant's heart within her. She was our rock when planning, fundraising, and decorating for our Junior Prom and all of our Class Parade Floats. She loved all of us and we love her. It always showed that she loved Mr. Ellis and taking care of him as he has worked so hard for his family too. I would watch her as she ironed your clothes and I remember saying, "When I grow up, I want to be just like her". She always had a crockpot or something cooking on the stove for your Family Dinner. She raised strong children and it's so evident she's taught them along with her soulmate how to be kind and caring adults that I now call Lifelong Friends. I love all of The Ellis Family, love and comfort to all of you in this dark time, Cynthia Kelly.
