“ When I think about my granny there are alot of words that come to mind. She was brave, strong, loving, caring, a fighter for sure, independent, and stubborn. She always cheered me on and talked to me when things were tough. We often talked about my high school graduation. She always told me how proud she was of me and that she will be there. She will be there; sitting in the front role seat cheering me on. I will carry a pic of her in her memory when I walk. I have tons of memories of her, but the one that sticks out the most is when we watched wrestling. She would scream at the TV, telling them whose boss. My next favorite was when I was at her house one summer. We were watching the Apple Dumping Gang. We laughed so hard that she wet her pants. I know that she is going to hurt me for saying that! I love you so much granny! I know you will be watching over us! My guardian angel! My granny, Frankie Marie Rogers.
