“ My heart was so shocked and hurt to see the obituary for Gary. He was such a nice man and I admired him so much to see him in church almost every Sunday, most of the time bringing some of his grandkids with him, while Mary Lou was home preparing the Sunday meal for that big family they were so faithful to take care of and loved them so dearly. This brings back the memories of how much he loved Brother Kim and Brother Kim loved him. May the whole Hughes clan feel God's love for them in the days ahead. And, know I love you all so much!

“ Rip Gary this city kid always loved coming to the farm. I got to hunt and fish and even drove your stock car once. The one with the rail road ties welded in. You got tired of them taking you out. lol

We lived a few blocks from the Dillingham clan growing up in Calera, Oklahoma. My brother Jim and I would often go the Dillingham's house because there seemd to always be something fun going on there. The brother, Gary, Lynn and Nicky, were all good people and we enjoyed playing there. They had a zip line, and the most fun thing to do was to hide behind a big tree while they shot marbles into the trunk with a home made cannon made from water pips (I think Mr. Dillingham was a plumber). If mom and dad had found out what we were doing, they would have fainted. Anyway, great family, not a mean one in the bunch. I know Gary will be missed forever.
