“ I met Joe later on in his life, but came to know him very well. Joe was the son of my very best friend, Emma Jean Van Bibber of Aurora, NE. His mother and I have been friends for over 75 years and she spoke very highly of Joe. He was a very caring and loving person and would do anything for his mother. He was always willing to leave Durant and go to NE to help his mother with anything she needed. Joe will surely be missed by so many that dearly loved him.
