“ I was so shocked to read the Obituary for Gerri. Just Saturday I thought one more time I need to try to get Gerri's phone number and call her. Gerri was so sweet and I learned to love her from our visits at the nursing home. May all of her family and loved ones be comforted by Jesus in the days ahead. I know she is at PEACE in the arms of Jesus. Pat Frazee

“ I have good memories of Jerri when I visited Uncle Jess and Aunt Willie and there would be a big dinner. Jerri would be in the kitchen helping although she was unable to walk. She didn't let it stop her. She was so kind when she and Lewie came to my mother's house after my Mother (Opal Henry) passed. She was a wonderful lady.

“ So sorry for your loss. She was a sweet lady I'll always remember her saying she started a prayer in the morning but did not say amen till that night she added things during the day. God be with all of you.

“ I can still hear Lewie and Jerri singing the beautiful old hymns and gospel songs at Calera First Baptist church when I was a kid! Such beautiful voices! I know Lewie met you at the gate, Jerri! See you soon, my blessed friend!
