“ Glynda, was born Glenda Churchill, but in true Glynda fashion, she had made the choice to live life as Glynda. She lived a life of integrity, that exemplified the true meaning of Christianity. She raised her children in church, and she was diligent in living by the word of God, and was a true role model for her children and grandchildren. She was kind, and thoughtful, and respectful of others.

She was a very excellent employee in her career as a CPA, who led by example in both her personal and professional life. God rest her soul, with a heavenly healed body free from pain, in the arms of her loved ones in heaven. She will be missed.

“ I didn't get to actually meet Glynda until she was at Featherstone. I found her so pleasant, very curious, kind, gracious & intelligent. Loved visiting her when I was there. Though I didn't know her well or for long at all, and she likely wouldn't have even remembered me from visit to visit, I will miss seeing her, and I'm thankful for the brief encounters with her. I know my sister, Shannon, loved her very much and got a lot of joy from helping care for Glynda. RIP. ❤️🌹
